Britain's Got Talent....

The British Champs took place last weekend in Northumberland and HALO have a new British Champion. Congratulations to John Butler winning M70s.

Not many made the journey North, but those who did, the Van Dam and Field families, Neil Harvatt, Helena Crutchley and of course JB, all performed admirably. Results can be seen here.

Meanwhile seven HALO members went to Not The British Champs at Peasholm Park Scarborough. Far from being easy peasy, the controls on steep slopes were difficult to reach and the journey back down the slope was quicker than you would have liked (think Kathleen Turner in Romancing the Stone)

Poacher 2014 Week Nine.....

Well done and thanks to Peter, Neil and Brian for organising last week's Poacher at Normanby le Wold (in the lousy weather). If you have been following events, you'll know it was a bit of a toughie, so congratulations to those who won through. A special mention to the Field family who were on kite collection rota last Wednesday and had to go around again.

This week Andrew Houlden is planning the five courses at Central park. We're now into the sprint series, and watch out for Pete Shew, as this is his Parkrun venue. Post race quaffing at the Queensway.

Results and the league tables so far, are on the HALO website, <http://www.halo-orienteeing.org.uk>

Lincolnshire Challenge Shield.....

The annual competition with LOG took place at Boultham Park in Lincoln last Thursday evening. A big thank you to all those who turned up, especially Helen Smith making the journey all the way from York, but perhaps outdone by Isoldt Harris returning from Felixstow. A bit of "dodgy dibbing" may have cost us the title, but we put on a good show, despite not having as many "high flyers" as LOG. Neil Harvatt was the top HALO finisher on combined times, followed by David Jolly, Alex Smith and Laurence Brown.

A post race report is on the website, but full results here, http://www.logonline.org.uk/wp/wp-content/uploads/2014/LCS\_Results\_Final-1.pdf

EVENTS.....

Wednesday,
Lincolnshire Poacher 9,
Central Park
Scunthorpe.

Next Sunday is the HALO Beverley Urban.
Runners and volunteers
from HALO needed, for what is one of our bigger events of the year. Starts are from 10.30am.

HALO Summer BBQ.....

Pete & Julie Shew have kindly offered to host
this year's BBQ at their home in Broughton. The date is Sunday July 27th, with further details
on the website shortly.

POACHER PICS.....

Thanks to Neil Harvatt
for this week's Poacher Pic. Kites drying out
after Normanby le Wold.

Poacher Picks....

This week you need to mix and match the courses to get the
necessary distance.
Course lengths go from 1km to 3km. Further details on the website.

Poacher Post Script.....

After eight events on the medium course, I've
now run 33km
compared to 26.9km
straight line course
distance.

PARKRUN PEOPLE.....

I mentioned Parkruns
earlier and I know a few of you do them
regularly. There are now four Parkruns in our area, Cleethorpes
Country Park started a couple of weeks ago
and this Saturday,
Humber Bridge Country
Park holds its inaugural 5km race. The other two areas, also known to orienteers, are East
Park Hull and Central Park Scunthorpe.
