

SubscribeShare ▼Past IssuesTranslate

HALO News Tuesday 14th April 2015

View this email in your browser

Poacher Round Two....

Thanks to everyone who turned up last Wednesday night to Swallow Vale. Seventy Seven runners may be a record. The full Poacher Results service is available on the HALO website, with analysis from Pete Harris, results and league positions, Routegadget and split times.

This week we're at Halliday Hill, meet at the Grasby Bottom crossroads, from 5.45pm onwards. The usual three courses are available, planned this week by Brian Ward.

AIRE Calverley Woods.....

The big event last Sunday was at Leeds. George Van Dam attempted the black course, whilst his sister Emma won the orange course. On the brown Jake Field was second, with Dean Field, in third place. On the blue course Charlotte Ward was second (1st Female) with Brian Ward, eleventh. Yasmin Field was ninth on the green. The yellow saw Tom Jepson finish third and Sam, Tilly, Henry and Dominic Houldon finished fifth on the white course.

Events this week.....

Wednesday, HALO Lincolnshire Poacher, Halliday Hill.

Thursday, LOG Spring Series, Ostlers Plantation.

Sunday, CLARO Hookstone Woods (HALO League)

HALO News.....

Welcome to new members Claire Hughes and Megan Adams.

Congratulations to new Grandparents Brian and Ingrid Slater and best wishes to Jo, Jeff and baby Alice.

Charlotte Ward has been selected to run for England in the Sprint and Relay competitions in Norway & Sweden in June. Congratulations Charlotte.

Poacher Pics.....

I didn't get to take any photos last week. So instead I have some JK photos kindly sent to me by Helen Chan.

SubscribeShare ▼Past IssuesTranslate

JK 2015
Brian Ward & Neil
Harvatt run across the finish line.

Copyright © 2015 HALO, All rights reserved.

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

MailChimp