WOC 2015 Special Edition.....

Massive congratulations go to Charlotte Ward competing at her first World Orienteering Championships in Scotland. Charlotte was the top British female finisher in both the Sprint qualifier and final.

In Sunday's epic race, Charlotte finished 17th, cheered on by a massive home crowd in Forres and thousands watching the live TV coverage at home.

Kris Jones was the top British Male, finishing in 8th place.

Full race reports on the WOC website.

Meanwhile.....

The World Champs continues all week, with events on Tuesday (Middle Distance) Wednesday (Televised Relay) and Friday (Long Distance).

Running alongside WOC2015 all this week, is the Scottish 6 Day event. With nearly 5,000 participants, checking individual results is impossible. So if you have a good run, or a story to tell, please let me know for a future newsletter.

Yorkshire Urban League.....

The final points have been added to the YUL for 2015.

Both George and Emma Van Dam finished top of their leagues, whilst Mary Carrick was third WSV. Well done guys.
