

RAF Ran Well.....

The Lincolnshire Challenge Shield took place last Wednesday at RAF Cranwell.

The format was a prologue and chase race. The prologue was predominantly light urban, whilst the chase featured a mass start into the woods. There were numerous loops and gaffles to contend with, as well as a bit of control "twanging".

Pete Shew had the task of trying to decipher the results into three groups, the Challenge Shield, Poacher and LOG Spring Series.

Long story short, LOG won the Challenge Shield.

In the conclusion of the LOG Spring Series League, David Jolly finished 2nd on the Technical, whilst Marsaili won the short, with Elspeth 3rd and Flora 5th.

The Poacher results for the night, saw Philip Johnston-Davis win the long, Lawrence Cook, the medium and Henry Cook the short. Well done folks.

Poacher Sprints.....

This week the Poacher returns to Normanby Hall. Andrew Houldon is planning the event, which will feature five courses to choose from in order to make up your required distance. Full details on the HALO website.

British Sprint Champs.....

The British Sprint Champs take place this Saturday at the Olympic Park London. A few HALO members are attending, not least Charlotte Ward, hoping to defend her 2015 title. Good luck Charlotte.
