

A Golden Summer.....

I hope you all had a good summer holiday, for me the highlight had to be the Olympics, and Team GB's excellent performance. I particularly enjoyed watching Australian cyclist, Keirin Deryn, a pity he never won anything. However there were plenty of HALO winners this summer.....

Charlotte Ward won a gold medal and became a World Champion, whilst running for Team GB, at the University WOC mixed sprint relay. This was followed up with a 4th place in the same class at the WOC a month later.

At the White Rose weekend, class winners and gold medallists over the two days were, George Van Dam M16, Jake Field M20 and Dean Field M50. A silver medal went to Yasmin Field W18, with bronze to Rosie Field W50 and John Butler M70.

David Jolly won gold in the Beverley Westwood Summer Score Series, which took place on Monday evenings. Just missing out on medals were Lawrence Cook, who finished 4th in the televised grand final of the 15:1 quiz show and Wayne Byrne who ran for Wales in the Veteran Home International event.

Last weekend "HALO On Tour" went to the Malaga City Race, where Neil Harvatt, Helena Crutchley and Mary Carrick all reached the podium, with Helena getting gold.

Away from the orienteering, Pete Harris just missed out on a medal on the tapas parallel bars, but Mary Carrick won gold at discuss.

The trip to Malaga was to celebrate Neil's 60th birthday (Happy Birthday Neil) but could equally count as training for the forthcoming HALO Pub League.
