

The Lincolnshire Poacher.....

The Poacher series continued last Wednesday evening at Hendale Woods.

Thanks to Anne Jolly for planning some excellent courses. I must apologise to Anne, as I had been giving David top billing for planning the event.

The technical levels and distances were spot on, as borne out by the timings. (don't expect the same tomorrow!)

Well done to Henry, Holly & Joe, winning their respective courses. In other news the organisers all dined well, not having to make do with pork scratchings this week.

Tomorrow night we are at Brompton Dale & Halliday Hill, where I will be planning. Starts are from 6pm or earlier. Parking again at Grasby Bottom Crossroads.

You can check out all the details on the HALO website.

Poacher Part Two.....

At my local pub quiz last week, I was surprised to hear the name of the winning team was 'The Poachers'. Only on turning round did I see Pete Kullich, founding father of the Lincolnshire Poacher Series, smiling happily as he pocketed the winning prize money.

Danefield Results.....

The AIRE event took place near Otley last Sunday.

George Van Dam was 30th on the brown, Paul Van Dam 35th on the blue. Pete Shew 35th green, whilst Brian Slater was 16th short green, with Mary Carrick 34th. Elspeth Jolly was 18th light green, just ahead of Emma Van Dam 21st and Marie 22nd.

The Race for President.....

An elite group of HALO runners head off to Paris next weekend, for the Euro City League event, which just so happens to coincide with the French Presidential election.

To get them in the mood, here are some pics of Paris.....
