

The Big Weekend in Hull.....

An amazing four events in two days and we're still on track for six events in a week!

The organisation needed to carry off last weekend was something special, so well done to Ken, Pete Harris, Brian Slater, Pete Shew and all those who helped out in anyway.

Saturday saw the Tri-O, three different events in three different locations (woodland, urban and sprint) Holly Horton won the Women's Open, her third victory this week. Jacky Edwards was 2nd WSV, Mary Carrick 2nd WUV. Lawrence Cook, Megan Smith and Helen Chan were all 4th in their respective age groups.

Sunday saw a long urban, planned by Charlotte Ward. Top HALO finishers were,

Open classes, Holly Horton 4th, David Jolly 7th.

Vets, Brian Hostad 6th, Helena Crutchley 8th.

Senior Vets, Brian Ward 2nd, Mary Vickers 14th.

Ultra Vets, Dorothy Smith 10th, Ken Hutson 17th.

Lincolnshire Urban League.....

The league kicked off last Thursday in Lincoln. Holly Horton won the medium, Megan Smith was 5th with Oliver 7th. On the long, Brian Ward was 3rd, with David Jolly 4th and Brian Hostad 8th. LOG take an early lead in the competition, but we know that the home team usually wins, so it's up to us at Market Rasen tomorrow night.....

The Lincolnshire Poacher.....

In the season finale at Healing Manor last week, Joe Taunton scythed his way through the field to win the long title. On the medium, Holly, Jonathan and Oliver all enjoyed it so much, they ran an extra km to improve their times, thus knocking me into the long grass. Meanwhile Hannah made hay on the short course.

Now it's off to pastures new, with the LUL at Market Rasen.

Thanks go to Brian Slater for planning the courses at Healing, and thanks also to Pete Harris, Pete Shew, Neil & Isoldt, all the planners and kite collectors, for making it another great Poacher series. Congratulations winners, and here's to 20 more years.
