

Lincolnshire Urban League.....

The LUL continued last Wednesday in the sunshine at Caistor. Thanks to Holly & Colin Horton, planning their first event for HALO.

LOG took the wins on each course despite a big HALO turnout.

Thanks to Pete for the speedy results service and for including splits browser.

It's always interesting to compare runs, Liam Harrington and David Jolly maintained their positions throughout the race, as did Hannah on the short. However on the medium course the top four all had the lead at one point, Ben having to come back from 21st, to take the win. Meanwhile Mike Smith flew past me for the fastest split to the finish.

The league continues this Thursday in Branston, south of Lincoln.

HALO Anniversary.....

Details of our 35th Anniversary Event in August are now on the website.

Please email Pete Harris to reserve your map.

But how well do you remember 1982?..... I feel a quiz coming on.....

Northern Rocket Weekend.....

MDOC and DEE held a weekend of urban sprinting in the North West.

On Saturday Charlotte Ward was 1st WO, with Brian Ward 1st MSV and Amanda Ward 7th WV. Ken Hutson was 10th MUV.

Sunday saw the British Mixed Sprint Relays, with Paul, Emma and George Van Dam finishing 3rd in the Ad Hoc race. Brian & Amanda finished 4th non/comp.

Humber Games Final At Hymers College.....

Last Friday saw the culmination of several months of qualifying heats, as schools competed to be the best in the region. Well done to Neil & Brian who organise the orienteering at these events and to all the HALO helpers.

The winning schools were, Yr5 Howden, Yr6 North Ferriby, Yr7 Sir John Nelthorpe Brigg, Yr8 St Mary's College, Yr9 The Vale Academy Brigg.
