

Lincolnshire Urban League.....

The LUL continued last Thursday evening at Branston, near Lincoln.

With Poacher deja vu, the series winners already are Hannah, Holly and Liam.

Big congratulations to them as well as Ben and Tanya, who take the other trophies.

The team competition would seem to be LOGs, but it would be great if we could win the final heat on Wednesday night at Willows and Freshney.

The prize giving will be after the event, with post race analysis at the Trawl.

Wolds Mini Marathon.....

LOG held their 3 hour score event last Saturday. Well done to Brian Hostad finishing 6th, Pete Harris 11th, Brian Slater 15th, Paul & Patrica Simmons 24th.

Corrections and Clarifications.....

Apologies to Charlotte Ward who I omitted from last week's report on the British Relay Sprint Championships.

She and her team finished third in the open classification, running as 'Shuoc Spooksters'

HALO 35th Anniversary Event.....

Details are now on the website, please email Pete Harris to reserve your map.

Where were you in 82.....?

I was doing A levels, before going to Sheffield Uni, where I joined Shuoc.

Assuming you were even born back then, and have a memory to share, please email me (simmonds216 at g mail dot com) and I'll use them in the Newsletter.

The big news story of 1982 was the Falklands War. However these news quiz questions are about more mundane matters.

Channel 4 began broadcasting in 1982, but which programme started things off?

- a) Brookside
- b) Countdown
- c) TFI Friday

Where was the Eurovision song contest held in 1982?

- a) Hamburg
- b) Helsinki
- c) Harrogate

Who was appointed the new England football manager in 1982?

- a) Jimmy Greaves
- b) Ron Greenwood
- c) Bobby Robson

more questions next week.....
