

Lincolnshire Urban League.....

The LUL concluded at Willow and Fresh Knees last Wednesday.

Thanks to Oliver Smith for planning, to Pete Harris, Brian Slater, Pete Shew, Neil & Isoldt for the back room work each week, and to Brian Hostad for the league tables.

The ideal weather window was 6pm to 6.40pm, so I managed to stay dry!!!

Big congratulations to the trophy winners, Hannah, Holly, Liam, Ben and Tanya.

HALO took the win on the night, but LOG retained the series title.

HALO 35th Anniversary Event.....

Not long until the glorious twelfth. Meanwhile Neil is organising some events on Beverley Westwood over the Holiday period, starting on the 8th August..

Check your email or the HALO website for more information.

Where were you in 82.....?

Pete Kullich writes.....

EYOC at the start of year HALO at the end.

Local events included a Street O in Brigg, starting in the Recreation Ground on a map drawn by the late Harry Milton, followed later on in the year by the Humberside County Council Team Championships on the Westwood.

Further afield the JK was held at Star Posts Berkshire, where I recall the parking was on the Motor Industry's test track. (Millbrook? - Ed)

A highlight personally was being given a day off work with pay, to take part in ITV's The Krypton Factor, presented by Gordon Burns!!

Back on the O scene some familiar names were at Primrose Hill as it was then called inc. Geoff Holmes, John Fulwood and Mark Tyszka, who was representing the old Viking club, the forerunner of HALO on the south bank.
