

Pub League.....

The autumn pub league continued last Tuesday at the Minerva Hull. Thanks to Jackie Edwards for planning the score event. Twenty one runners took part, with David Jolly the quickest to find all twenty controls. Neil won the handicapped result again and now leads the table by four points. Tonight we're at the Beckwood Bottesford, with Megan Smith planning, starts 6pm.

British Sprint Champs.....

Last Saturday saw the British Sprint Champs at Milton Keynes. Helen Chan (minus baby buggy) won the W40B course, and celebrated in style. Charlotte Ward finished fourth in the Women's Open and Pete Harris was fourth M55C. Brian was 9th, Neil 12th, Helena 16th, Paul 21st, George 12th, and Emma 10th in their respective finals. There are a few HALO faces in the pictures on the BO website and also results for the British Middle Distance Champs, which took place the following day.

Postcard from Mary Vickers.....

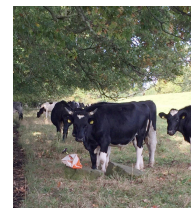

Peter & I have been away working in Toronto as chaplains at the Invictus Games. So lots of listening, caring, supporting, etc. We also helped with other tasks when needed. Whilst doing access control one day, I managed to refuse entry to 2 Generals within 20 minutes! One was not pleased so I may never be seen again.... I didn't see Prince Harry either, so can't supply a picture, however here is me and Vimy. Or could this be Harry in disguise to escape the media?
