

Poacher 2018.....

The Lincolnshire Poacher continues tomorrow night on World Orienteering Day at Central Park Scunthorpe.

Mike and Dorothy Smith have planned seven courses, which should see a lot of runners all out at the same time.

A big thank you to Pete Harris for last week's event at Twigmoor. Well done to the winners, Harry, Oliver and Liam. Although I was hoping for a Harry and Megan headline.

At the halfway stage the league tables are starting to take shape, why not take a look on the HALO website?

Postcard from Balmoral.....

Helena Crutchley writes from Royal Deeside...

It was a beautiful hot sunny day for the British Champs, despite there still being snow on the nearby Cairngorms.

The forest was dry and the smell of pine needles made it feel like the south of France rather than the north of Scotland.

A daunting first leg set the tone of things to come, with several 'round the hill or over it' route choices. With a lack of obvious attack points you had to choose carefully and keep in contact with the map.

I made a few mistakes, so it wasn't the result I had hoped for. But looking at the splits I wasn't the only one, and managed to achieve 15th place by one second.
