

LUL 2018.....

The Lincolnshire Urban League had its first HALO event last Wednesday night in Brigg. Thanks to Megan for planning some great courses and making full use of the town. Well done to the winners, Dave Jolly on the long and Dom on the medium course. This Thursday we're guests of LOG at Welton, just north of Lincoln. League tables for the two events so far, are on their website.

Somme Like It Hot.....

Flanders Fields in Belgium played host to the Antwerp Sprint Orienteering Meeting last weekend in 30c temperatures. Charlotte Ward just missed out on the combined Women's Elite title by 2 seconds to the Russian, Galina Vinogradova. Charlotte won one sprint race on the Saturday and was 6th in the second, before winning the WE Ypres Urban on Sunday. Meanwhile Brian Ward was 4th overall MSV, with Neil 10th and Pete Harris 16th. Amanda Ward was 17th overall WSV. Dom was 4th MJ at Ypres on Sunday. A nod of respect to Tanya Taylor from LOG, who won the W45 green vest and to Neil who ran through the fountain in the Ypres town square to cool off whilst competing.

Halifax Urban.....

Four HALO runners attended the EPOC event. After my recent comment about how urban results are presented EPOC used every possible variation. (it's worth a look) John Butler was 2nd M75 (short green) Mary Carrick was 9th W65 (short green) Ken Hutson was 9th M65 (green) and Jackie Edwards was 5th W60 (green)
