

HALO YHOA Regional Events.....

A big thank you and well done to David Jolly, Wayne Byrne, Anne Jolly and Brian Slater for organising and planning last weekends' events. Thanks also to Pete & Isoldt, Pete Shew and all the other helpers who made the two events a success.

Twigmoor Night event.....

Not the best of conditions to run in, mainly because it was dark....
Well done to Flora, joint first on the newcomers and Elspeth, second on the short.
Lawrence was 10th on the medium, Dean 11th on the long.

Twigmoor Day Event.....

Over a hundred runners for day two, better weather, and it was light....
The podium claxon sounded for Brian Slater, 2nd short green and Neil, 2nd blue.
The orange course saw a battle of walkenteering between Megan and Ann O'Grady. Other results saw Pete Shew 6th short green with Geoff Holmes 10th, Helen Chan 7th green with Dave Offler 11th. Dean Field 4th blue with Daniel O'Grady 10th, whilst Mike Byron and Helena were 11th & 12th Brown. Finally a mention for Mary Carrick who clocked up nearly five hours of orienteering in Twigmoor over the weekend.

Postcard from Funchal....

Thanks to Ken for letting me know it's currently sunny and 21c in Madeira.
He was competing in the last Eurocity Race weekend, where he finished 21st sprint and 20th long urban. Well done Ken, hope you enjoyed the wine and the cake...
