

Weekend Results.....

Big turnouts across the country as people sought some post Christmas orienteering.

At the EBOR event 277 people ran around the university campus, it could have been 278, but Jackie wasn't waiting for a map!

The podium klaxon sounded for Brian Ward 1st MSV, Charlotte Ward 1st WO and David Jolly 2nd MV.

Some inter-HALO competition saw Ken pip Paul for 11th MUV, Dorothy 10th and MC 13th WUV and Helena 5th, Helen 6th WV.

The New Year's Day Event.....

A great time was had at our NYD Event at Healing.

Thanks to Mary Vickers and Lawrence for organising. Mike Smith for mapping, Brian Slater and Pete Shew for doing what they do so well. Thanks also to the caterers, the turkey twizzlers must have gone quickly, because I didn't see any.

The competition was very tight with a tie for first place... oh that was the quiz.

The orienteering was fast and furious, and the winning team was Pete Harris, Anne Jolly and Pete Shew. So it looks like Broughton next year, put it in your diaries now. Thanks to our compere Pete Harris, and all those who collected controls, cleaned up, washed up etc.
