

Weekend Results.....

Plenty of orienteering to choose from last weekend. On Saturday night SYO held their YHOA night league event, where Neil Harvatt was 9th on the medium course, followed by Pete Harris 19th, Rosie Field 25th and Mary Carrick 29th.

On Sunday CLOK held their event postponed from last week. George Van Dam was 4th on the brown, Paul Van Dam was 21st green, John Butler 6th short green, with Marie Van Dam 16th, Emma Van Dam was 5th light green.

Further south DVO held an event at Birchens Edge. Neil was 13th blue with Pete 41st. Paul Simmons was 28th green with Mary Carrick 71st.

Fight the Night 2.....

LOG held their second score event in the series last night at Birchwood. Brian Ward was 3rd, David Jolly 8th, Pete Harris 11th, Amanda Ward 24th and Brian Slater 31st.

Don't forget our Pub League starts next Wednesday night at Caistor.....

YHOA Awards.....

Anyone who got a placing in last year's leagues (Superleague / Night / Urban) are to be awarded with a YHOA Mug.

These will be presented at the EPOC Royds Hall event on Sunday 24th February.

If you can't collect in person, can you arrange for someone else to collect for you.

HALO Mini Tour.....

I received an email from Mary Carrick late last night, telling me about her enjoyable weekend with Neil, Pete, Alison and Isoldt.

But when she started talking about big comfy beds and porridge, I did start to wonder if it was all a fairytale.

Suffice to say the orienteering went okay, but the social went better. It was chilli Saturday night, but even chillier on Sunday, after a quick hail Mary.....

Compass Sport Trophy.....

This year's heat is being held at Sherwood Pines and is organised by NOC.

If you can represent the club on March 17th, please let Neil know.
