

Pub League Wednesday.....

The HALO Spring Pub League began last Wednesday night at Caistor. Isoldt had planned a 45 minute score event including a short linear course. Controls in the school grounds were worth 5 points as opposed to 10 points for the others, but it meant you could bag a quick 60 points in under 10 minutes. It also meant you could have a set of sprint results as well as overall results. Clever stuff.....

Brian Ward won on the night, and along with Pete, Mike and Lawrence, managed to stop the flying Tornados from RAFO making a clean sweep of things. (However I consider DJ and WB more HALO than RAFO !)

This Wednesday we are at The Hayride, Beverley North, where Jackie is planning. Costs are £4 and you'll need hi-viz and torches, under 16s to be accompanied. Starts are from 6-7pm with courses closing at 8pm, there maybe cake.....

Fight the Night 4.....the finale

LOG held the final score event in their series last night. Brian Ward was 2nd, David Jolly 5th, Pete Harris 12th, Pete Shew 27th, Brian Slater 29th and Amanda Ward 30th. Final League positions will be published shortly.

Regional Events.....

EPOC held an event at Royds Hall last Sunday. They gave a good background as to the history of the woods, including the fact that the Beech trees were planted 100 years ago as they made great bobbins for the textile industry.

Bobbin' along nicely was George Van Dam 8th brown, Paul was 22nd. Dean was 12th blue, whilst Mike Smith just missed a podium klaxon, finishing 4th short green, with Emma Van Dam 7th and John Butler 12th.

YHOA Night League Results.....

Last week's Northern Night Champs was the last event in the YHOA Night League for 2018/19. A big thank you to Mary (W70) Carrick for sending the results to me.

Top HALO finishers in the League were,
Elspeth Jolly 1st women junior
Rosie Field 2nd women supervet
Mary Carrick 2nd women ultravet
Dean Field 6th men supervet
Paul Simmons 10th men ultravet
Plenty of other HALO runners got mentions as well.
Full results on the YHOA website.
