

Northern Champs Weekend.....

SYO held a weekend of orienteering in Sheffield.

Brian Ward was 1st M55 at the Ponderosa Urban on Saturday.

In the woods on Sunday John Butler was 1st M75s, Rosie Field 1st W55s, Yasmin Field 1st W20s and Joe Field was 2nd M21s.

Well done to them, as well as the others who competed in challenging conditions.

Pub League Wednesday.....

The HALO Pub League continued last Wednesday night at Barton.

A big thank you to all those who went out and ran in "the wettest event we've ever run" I still don't know which was worse, being out when the rain started, or having to set off in it from the dry.....

There were 21 controls to visit in total, David Jolly was quickest to collect all, followed by Brian Ward and Pete Harris. Alex Smith got 21 but with time penalties and Brian Hostad dibbed 22 controls, having got one out of sequence.

Brian Ward leads the league table after three events, and Brian Slater's race/weather report is on the HALO website.....

This Wednesday we are at The Fair Maid, Cottingham.

Paul Simmons is planning a score event with a line course in the town centre.

It's another chance to see Pete Shew's excellent new results service, which displays the order in which you visited controls as well as your time and placing.

Entry costs £4 and you'll need hi-viz and torches and maybe waterproofs !

Compass Sport Trophy.....

The Sherwood Pines qualifying event is next Sunday.

Full report and pics next week.
