

Lincolnshire Poacher.....

Last week saw us running at Swallow Vale, thanks to Geoff for planning.

The three course winners were the same as last week, in what were two very different areas. You can read Pete's full report online.

This Wednesday we are at Normanby South in what is National Map Reading Week. Fairly portentous. Ollie and Megan are planning three courses, where the short competitors get to run one, medium do two, and long all three.

Podium Klaxon.....

The Klaxon has been sounding in Yorkshire this weekend.

Sunday saw Charlotte and Brian finish first in their class at the CLARO Ripon Urban event. Whilst Bank Holiday Monday saw them make it a double at the EBOR York City Race. Also having a blast were David Jolly 2nd MV at York and Mike Smith 2nd MUV. Eleven runners ran at Ripon and ten of them ran again at York today.

So well done to all who ran at both or either event, full results are now online.

A quick mention for Richard Craig, doing his first urban I think and George Van Dam who got a 10th and 12th place running MO.

*A nice bit on the EBOR website about today.....

"Runners must not go swimming in the river, please use the bridges.

All maps are printed on waterproof paper" (just in case you decide to swim?)
